

FUNERAL DIRECTIONS

It is highly recommended that you give sincere thought to giving directions now for that inevitable occasion when your family and/or friends will be called upon to make plans for your funeral. Much emotional pain will be spared if you direct those loved ones in your wishes prior to that event. It is simply good common sense to plan and put into writing what you wish to happen when you die. The following form is simply one way that can help your family. Copies should be made and placed with your personal papers, and placed on file in the parish office. Be sure family members know the location of this information. These directions should be updated every few years. (Please type or print the information requested.)
